

Meeting Brief — Waltham House

INTERNAL ONLY — Do not share with the client

Meeting Details

Contact: Andrea (Manager)

Location: Waltham House, Wirksworth

Type: Extra care scheme for elderly residents

Date: Today

Your Role Today

You are here to listen, learn about their needs, take photos/videos of the property, and leave a great impression.

You are NOT quoting on the spot. Hand over the rate card and say our team will follow up with a tailored proposal.

Key Talking Points

- “We provide a full property maintenance service — general repairs, electrical, plumbing, and more.”
- “We’re fully insured — £2M public liability.”
- “We can offer scheduled maintenance days — typically 2 days a month.”
- “I’ve brought our rate card for you to review.”
- “Our team will follow up with a tailored proposal after today.”

What to Photograph / Video

Always ask permission before photographing.

- Common areas and corridors
- Any visible maintenance issues or damage
- Fire doors (condition, closers, seals)
- Bathrooms and kitchens
- External areas and car park
- Signage, entry points, accessibility features

Questions to Ask Andrea

- How many units / rooms are there at Waltham House?

- What types of repairs come up most often?
- Is there a current backlog of maintenance jobs?
- Who raises repair requests — staff, residents, or families?
- Do you need compliance paperwork (electrical certs, etc.)?
- Who is your current maintenance provider? What's not working?
- Are there any urgent jobs you need done right now?

Important — Do NOT

✗ Do NOT quote prices verbally — hand over the rate card and say “our team will follow up with a tailored proposal.”

✗ Do NOT commit to start dates or specific availability.

✗ Do NOT claim any personal trade qualifications.

✗ Do NOT promise specific tradespeople.

✗ If asked technical questions, say: “Let me get our specialist team to come back to you on that.”

What to Leave Behind

Hand Andrea the Handy Services Rate Card (the other document). Let her know our team will be in touch with a full proposal.
